Group Head, BMO Wealth Management, BMO Financial Group

Joanna Rotenberg is Group Head, BMO Wealth Management, a global manager providing over 1 million retail and institutional clients with a range of wealth management, asset management and insurance protection solutions.

Joanna is a member of BMO's Executive Committee, and a director for Nesbitt Burns Holdings Corporation. Upon joining BMO in 2010, Joanna has acted as BMO's Head of Strategy and its Chief Marketing Officer. She was appointed Group Head of BMO Wealth Management in 2016. Prior to joining BMO, Joanna was a partner with McKinsey & Company and a leader in McKinsey's North American financial services practice, serving clients in wealth and asset management, banking and insurance.

Joanna is proud to serve as Treasurer to the Board of Directors of Sinai Health System. She is also Major Individual Giving Cabinet Chair for the United Way of Greater Toronto. An alumni of the University of Toronto's J.D/M.B.A program, Joanna serves on Rotman's Dean's Advisory Board, and received an Arbour Award for her service to UoFT.

In 2017, Joanna was named one of Canada's Most Powerful Women by the Women's Executive Network. In 2018 she was recognized as a "Women in Capital Markets Champion of Change" for her strong voice for change in the advancement of women in financial services. For an unprecedented tenth year in a row, American Banker's editors selected Joanna and the BMO team of female leaders to win a Most Powerful Women in Banking and Finance Top Team Award.

Joanna is a member of the New York State Bar.
